Click on the link to see the Texas 2X2 Reading List, a project of the Children's Round Table, a unit of the Texas Library Association. Texas Library Association sponsors the 2X2 Reading List solely to encourage free voluntary reading for children from two years old to second grade. These books also make perfect read-alouds for children of all ages.

Horn Book Magazine publishes articles, reviews, and editorials about books for children and young adults. Their summer reading recommendations range from picture books, early readers and primary grades, intermediate, middle school, and high school: <https://www.hbook.com/2019/05/blogs/family-reading/2019-summer-reading-list/>

The Association for Library Service to Children provides lists full of book titles to keep children engaged in reading throughout the summer.

Click on the link below to go to the International Literacy Association's Children's Choices. Children have evaluated these books and written reviews of their favorites. Since 1974, Children's Choices has been a trusted source of book recommendations used by teachers, librarians, parents, and children themselves. The list is divided into recommendations for Beginning Readers (Grades K-2, Ages 5-8), Young Readers (Grades 3-4, Ages 8-10), and Advanced Readers (Grades 5-6, Ages 10-12).
